

Bob Marvel's website, www.bobmarvelguns.com, was disabled May 13 and the domain name is for sale. Bob has not left the business and is continuing to build "exceptionally reliable" pistols as in the past.

The previous email addresses (bob@bobmarvelguns.com & match22@bobmarvelguns.com) became unavailable to us on May 13 when the web site was disabled. Emails concerning pistol inquiries, conversion requests, and business related questions cannot be accessed by either one of us. Fortunately, copies were made of most conversion orders prior to our website being disabled. Please do not use the previous website's email addresses.

ALL COMMUNICATION REGARDING BUSINESS MATTERS, EFFECTIVE MAY 13, WILL BE HANDLED USING THE EMAIL ADDRESSES PROVIDED BELOW. IF YOU HAVE RECEIVED EMAILS FROM ANY OTHER ADDRESS THAN THOSE LISTED BELOW AFTER MAY 12, PLEASE KNOW THAT THE EMAILS DID NOT ORIGINATE FROM OUR BUSINESS, WERE NOT SANCTIONED BY US, AND ARE SUSPECT TO VALIDITY.

- ✓ Questions involving custom gun purchases, pistol smith questions, etc. should be directed specifically for Bob at:
bobmarvelcustomguns@gmail.com OR deb.marvelguns@gmail.com
- ✓ Inquiries related to the new Bob Marvel Custom .22 Pro Conversion should be directed to:
deb.marvel22conversion@gmail.com.

We are in the process of building two new websites -- www.bobmarvelcustomguns.com and www.bobmarvel22conversion.com. Unfortunately, the sites are still under construction and are not ready for viewing. We appreciate your patience and continued business during the interim of building the new sites.

In addition, FINALLY, the new "Bob Marvel Custom .22 Pro Conversion" is available. (Recall: The Bob Marvel Custom .22 Pro Conversion is not what Marvel Precision sells as the Marvel conversion. Marvel Precision continues to use and sell Bob's original designs and name.) Thanks to your feedback, more options and accessories will be available to you when purchasing the Bob Marvel Custom .22 Pro Conversion. As soon as the website is available, you will have the opportunity to purchase the Conversion and/or accessories on line using a credit card.

Conversion orders will be filled according to the chronological order of the requests. We are currently accurizing, assembling, and testing our first shipment of 30 Conversions. The first 30 individuals who ordered the Conversion will be contacted via email to confirm their orders and to secure payment. After these units are sold, we will receive 50 more Conversions. Additional information updates will be provided, and verification of orders will occur as quickly as possible.

Our mailing address and phone are:
2303 County Rd. GG
Crete, NE 68333-5001
(402) 826-3679

Please watch for www.bobmarvelcustomguns.com and www.bobmarvel22conversion.com. Again, we appreciate your patience and continued support as "we get back on line"!
